

Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement – Communication Statement

Teek It Ltd confirms that its Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement has been communicated to all relevant individuals working for or on behalf of the company.

Communication of the Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is carried out through the following process:

- Provision of the statement during induction of employees and contractors.
- Ongoing management communication reinforcing ethical conduct, responsible sourcing and zero tolerance of modern slavery.
- Availability of the statement as part of company governance and policy documentation.
- Reinforcement of reporting mechanisms through the company's Whistleblowing Policy. Teek It Ltd adopts a proportionate approach to policy communication appropriate to the size and nature of the organisation. Oversight of this process rests with the Managing Director.
